Description

A beautifully presented period listed house, semi-detached and refurbished to an exceptionally high standard and located on one of Kensington's most sought after roads. The house is set back from the street behind electric gates and a deep front garden and has the benefit of generous off street parking and a car lift to a secure underground garage. The house is arranged principally over 4 floors with an impressive double volume reception room filled with natural light with an entire glass wall of floor to ceiling doors opening onto the landscaped garden at the rear. The lower ground floor provides an extensive leisure area with swimming pool, gym, treatment room and games room, whilst the 1st and 2nd floors provide excellent bedrooms arranged to be easily adapted for children or guests. A lift serves the basement to 1st floor. Bedford Gardens is situated in the heart of Kensington and convenient for both Notting Hill and High Street Kensington. The street is made up of an architecturally interesting and eclectic mix of period houses all within close proximity for Holland Park and Kensington Gardens.
